Appreciation

We, the Senior Class of nineteen hundred fifty-nine, wish to express our deepest appreciation to you, our teachers, for your help and consideration to us through our days at Spottswood High School. We, the Senior Class of nineteen hundred fifty-nine, wish to dedicate this volume of the SPOT-LIGHT to our parents who have guided us through our journey along the road of our education.

Principal's Message

The young men and women of our school are full of ambitions and dreams the same as other young adults the world over.

To those of you that are going out on your own at the end of this year, I hope that you are able to fulfill these ambitions and dreams that you have developed while a student at Spottswood High School.

To the underclassmen, I express the hope that you will strive hard to better prepare yourselves to attain your ambitions. Set your standards high. Develop a belief in yourself and a dignity for your fellow man.

"To look up and not down, To look forward and not back, To look out and not in, And to lend a hand."

MILLBORO—Spottswood's Wild-, ets closed out their regular sea-, but here Friday night by dropping, both a varsity and a junior varsity tilt to Millboro in an inter-district game.

A disastrous thir d period, in which Spottswood could score but one point, set up Millboro's 55-49 victory in the varsity tilt. Down only three points at halftime, the Wildcats turned ice cold in the shooting department in that quarter, while Millboro was tallying 14 points and pulling far ahead.

The Wildcats staged a comeback in the final period, but it fell short despite a 24 point performance by Spottswood's Billy Thomas.

Thomas tied with J. Sams of Millboro for scoring honors.

A late-game comeback also fell short for the Spottswood junior varsity and they bowed 37-36 to the Millboro Jaycees.

Although Peyton Zachriason was scoring 16 points to pace the younger Wildcats, the third quarter rally fell short and Millboro breezed to the win. Deitz of Millboro led all scorers in that contest with 21 points.

The Beta Club is a National Honor Society originating in Spartanburg County, South Carolina in 1933-34. The club colors are old gold and black. The motto is "Duncamus Allis Serviendo" meaning "Let us lead by serving others." The cardinal principles of the organization are achievement, character, and leadership.

Our objectives for this year were:

Teach in absence of faculty
Present a one-act play
Present assembly programs
Aid failing students
Send articles to Beta Club Journal
Contribute gift to CARE
Plan bulletin board display

F.H.A. Members

The SPOTTSWOOD CHAPTER of THE FUTURE HOMEMAKERS NATIONAL ASSOCIATION chose to carry out the following goals this year:

- 1. To obtain better family relations
- 2. To promote better understanding between people
- 3. To promote a better understanding of homemaking education
- 4. To promote interest in home, school, and community activities
  - a. Families Together
  - b. Civil Defense and Safety
  - c. Home, School and Community Beautification
  - d. UNESCO
  - e. Teen Age Consumer

We have carried out various activities to meet these goals.

The Spottswood FFA Chapter has participated in many different contests since school opened in September. Although we have not won many we have picked up valuable information.

The chapter along with the FHA, held two fun days at Spottswood on September 26th and 27th. These two days consisted of various games and contests. On the 27th, a riding tournament was held. Four of the Spottswood FFA Chapter boys entered this tournament.

The chapter enjoyed a Christmas party on Saturday, December 20th. At this party we danced, played games, and had refreshments.

The chapter presented an assembly program in observance of National FFA week, and also prepared articles for several newspapers. A joint father-son, mother-daughter banquet will be held on April 24th, and our chapter will sponsor the BAR Federation Banquet here on April 29th.

Our final activity of the year is the state convention at Blacksburg, and three of our chapter members will attend.
